

Declaration of confidentiality

The house "Prélène, Mrs. S. Bukulmez" is a trading firm duly registered in 1989 on the commercial register of Switzerland.

We sell various articles by our site of Internet which is public. It can be visited at will. The documents of our site can be freely consulted and downloaded. They contain no element against the legal and moral requirements.

We pursue via e-mails dialogues with correspondents to answer their questions and to give our advices, in a purpose of promotion which is not necessarily commercial.

These dialogues do not constitute a forum and remain private and confidential between our company and our correspondent. To avoid abuses hidden behind the anonymity we ask for the name and for the first name of our correspondent, as well as his or her complete mailing address and the number of the fixed telephone of its place of residence. We verify these data by means of telephone directories.

We do not pursue the dialogue by e-mails and do not supply any additional information as long as our correspondent did not pass on to us the above quoted data.

We declare that we never pass on the data so obtained in thirds, whatever the use that they could make of it.
